OPTIONAL TOUR DESCRIPTION (Minimum 10 pax)

1. Hutong Tour in Beijing (USD 27/pp) May 21, 2010

Hutong is a traditional living area for ordinary Beijing citizens, the history of which dates back to 1000 years ago. Hundreds of thousands of houses of traditional architecture style are densely flanked on both sides of narrow and zigzag streets in which people have been living a peaceful and traditional life there through many generations. Tourists will first get on traditional rickshaw, two for each, for a Hutong tour, riding through those narrow streets tracing the taste of the historical life of an oriental country. During the two hours Hutong tour tourists will learn a lot of China's modern life and its people. It is another highlight after the Great Wall.

2. The Legend of Kung Fu (USD28/pp) May 22, 2010

The Legend of Kung Fu is a production, which combines the elements of kung fu, story telling, acrobatics, modern dance and original music to celebrate the philosophy and skill of martial arts. The show tells the story of a young boy, Chun Yi (the pure one), whom in order to pursue spiritual and physical harmony is apprenticed as a monk to learn kung fu.

3. Traditional Chinese reflexology (USD28/pp) May 24, 2010

Experience the traditional Chinese reflexology. The ancient art of healing by working pressure points on the feet corresponding to different parts of the body. It is believed that following illness, injury or stress, the vital energy pathways in the body are blocked preventing the body from functioning normally. Chinese reflexology helps unblock these pathways by ridding the body of toxins and improving blood circulation. This restores the body's equilibrium, encourages healing and strengthens the body.

4. ERA-Intersection of Time-by Cirque du Soleil (USD35/pp) May 25, 2010

As a multimillion-dollar stunning acrobatic extravaganza, the first of its kind in China, ERA is a multimedia odyssey whose inspiration is a direct result of the combination of traditional Chinese acrobatic arts and modern technology. Just like Shanghai, ERA evolves through a constant collision between the past and future. As such, ERA can remain universal, without language, or cultural barriers. A thousand-year-old gesture is worth a thousand emotions, a thousand images, and a thousand words. Allow us to feed your imagination and bring your dreams back to the present.

5. Evening Cruise on Huangpu River (USD25/pp) May 26, 2010

The cruise will absolutely build in every one an unforgettable impression of Grand Shanghai! The evening view of Shanghai from the cruise is gorgeous, charming and unbeatable.

6. Suzhou Excursion (USD78/pp) May 27, 2010

Suzhou is praised as the 'Oriental Venice', since 42% area of the city is covered by water, including a vast number of ponds and streams. Visit Lingering Garden, one of the four most famous gardens in China, the world's largest ancient canal - Grand Canal and learn the world only Double Faced Silk Embroidery. Lunch included.

7. Shanghai Maglev Train (one way ticket USD15/pp) May 28, 2010

Shanghai maglev train, the first commercial rail line of its type in the world, at top speed of 431 kilometers per-hour which is much faster than the Bullet Train in Japan. Shanghai Maglev Train takes only 7 minutes and 20 seconds to cover 30-kilometer trip, which currently takes 30 to 40 minutes by driving. Invested with a total amount of 10 billion yuan, it took 2.5 years to complete. Powered by electromagnetism, when running it is suspended in air, about 10 millimeters above the track on a magnetic cushion. It brings a speed revolution to the world in ground transportation, and riding on the train will be an exciting experience for you!

Remark: Deadline for optional tours reservation is April 15, 2010. Reservation can be sent to World Trade Center San Diego or San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce or to Asia Getaway Inc. via fax of 760-635-1287 or e-mail to info@asiagetaway.com. Full payment required before departure.
